

IMPORTANT NOTICE ABOUT REMAINING TOKYO 2020 TICKET AVAILABILITY

Cartan Global has completed its general public ticket sales for the Tokyo 2020 Olympic Games.

However, we have recently had some inventory returned for selected sports and sessions and will be making these tickets available via its website (www.cartanglobal.com) to all applicable general public customers that Cartan represents, in March, based on the following schedule:

- March 2-6 – Residents of the following countries and territories (Aruba, Barbados, Belize, Bermuda, Cayman Islands, Costa Rica, Dominican Republic, Ecuador, Federated States of Micronesia, Grenada, Guam, Guatemala, Guyana, Haiti, Honduras, Panama, Puerto Rico, St. Lucia, St. Kitts and Nevis, St. Vincent and the Grenadines, Trinidad and Tobago, Venezuela, Virgin Islands)
- March 9-13 – Residents of Chile and Colombia
- March 16-20 – Residents of Jamaica
- March 23-27 – Residents of Mexico
- March 30-April 4 – Residents of Latvia, North Macedonia and Slovenia (and eligible EEA countries)

Of the tickets returned, there were no tickets for Opening Ceremonies, Closing Ceremonies, Gymnastics, Swimming, Gold Medal Basketball, Gold Medal Tennis or similar high-profile events. Also, for many countries, there may only be a few sessions available.

All tickets will be sold on a first come-first serve basis, based on the limited available inventory for each country during the above-mentioned time frame. No further ticket requests will be accepted, and all sales will be considered final and non-refundable.

The next opportunity to purchase tickets for other events will be during Tokyo 2020's Global Ticket Sales, scheduled to launch in May 2020.

Further information about this additional ticket opportunity can be obtained by contacting Cartan at customerservice@cartan.com or at +1.310.546.9662.
